Subject: photos for you

Date: Tue, 7 Oct 2008 8:41 pm

This is not the best photo, I took it with my cell phone. This is actually the head stone for William Oliver 1901 – 1956 and Ressie Oliver 1907 – 2000. I am going to look around and see if I can find her obit for you. I know I had it, just have to find it. Hammels

Here is a photo of my family we are right above the finished house. We have actually been on the front cover for the last two years and there is a possibility of another year. Unfortunately I don't have many pictures of me, except building houses.

I just got a phone call tonight, they want me to come back to Habitat and co-chair the building committee again. With me being the zoning secretary, I have to check with the trustees to see if they would feel that this is a conflict of interest. I heard that they want a building book put together as to how we build our houses and I would be the best bet to get it done, as I know the routine.

This is actually my favorite place to be, walking the trusses and making sure everything is set for the roof. I absolutely love the framing aspect. This picture is from building a homeless shelter for veterans, called the Freedom House. We actually had this framed in 7 days (5000 + Square feet) and with the help of almost 100 people every Saturday.

RECOUNT BOOSTS FRY LEAD TO 17

The recount of votes in the recent primary in five races in the county was completed by the county court last week, and no material changes were made in the results as previously announced in this paper.

In the county superintendent's race, H. F. Fry's majority over Fred Carey was increased from 7 to 17.

There was no recount in the legislative race, since H. T. Tucker withdrew his application for a recount and W. B. Smith failed to file bond after making application for recount. Tucker was only 7 votes behind J. O. Marcum in the official canvass.

M. J. Bartram, running on the Republican ticket for Member of the Butler high school Board of Directors, withdrew his request for recount, after one precinct had been recounted by the court. L. W. Borders won over Bartram by five votes.

Others who had made application for recount were J. H. Miller, John Jackson, and Bascom Copley, all of Lincoln district. But in none of these races did the recount reveal any material changes in the vote as reported by this paper the day after the primary.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM CRUM, son of William C. (Carpy Bill) and Elizabeth Pack Crum, was born on the 14th; day of June, 1854, and departed this life at 2:30 o'clock, A.M., November 4th, 1948. Aged, 94 years, 4 months and 21 days.

In addition to the widow, Mrs. Gertrude Kirk Crum, he leaves four children by a former marriage; J. B. Crum, of Crum, Albert Crum of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. T. J. Preston, Quaker, and Maude M. Crum, of Wayne, West Virginia, 13 grand-children, 21 great grand-children and ONE great-great grand-child.

On March 19th, 1911, brother Crum became a member of Silver Creek Church, United Baptist, by baptism and his confession of faith-thereby affiliating with the organization of which he had been a life time supporter, following in the foot-steps of his father, by building the present edifice of the Church, in the year 1904, donating the lands upon which it stands, and a major portion of the finances.

Brother Crum spent his entire life in the Old Crum Homestead in which he was born, and which he inherited from his father, expiring in the same room in which he was born more than 94 years ago, with the same old Seth Thomas Clock, with all wooden work tolling the hours at the entering and departure. The old homestead in which brother Crum was born, lived and passed away was always open, not only to the members of his Church, but to all man-kind, regardless of race, color or creed. It can truthfully be said, "HE LIVED IN A HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD, AND WAS A FRIEND TO MAN." Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Matewan Pioneer Is Claimed By Death

Thomas Chafin, highly respected and life-long resident of Matewan, died at his home there at six o'clock last Saturday morning. He had been in declining health for about one year and for a time seemed to be improving but a turn for the worse was noted about three weeks ago. Death was due to heart trouble.

Mr. Chafin was a familiar figure in Matewan, where he spent most of his life. For a number of years he conducted a draying business, giving it up when his health began to fail. He had many relatives in the county and host of warm friends.

Surviving, Mr. Chafin, in addition to his widow are three daughters, Mrs. B. D. Humphrey, of Cedar Bluff; Mrs. K. M. Calfee, of Keystone and Miss Mae Chafin, of Matewan and four sons, Ed Chafin, of Hagerstown, Harry Chafin, of Welch, Roscoe Chafin, of Ashland and Dr. Arthur Chafin, of Matewan. A sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hatfield, of Huntington and a half brother, who lives in Kermit, also survive.

Funeral services were held in the Matewan Methodist church Monday afternoon and were largely attended by friends and relatives. Interment followed in the Matewan cemetery.

The money must be paid to the secretary of state for the big offices, and the county candidates must hand it over to the sheriff. The secretary then prorates his fund to the counties of the various districts, for instance, each coun- ty in a senatorial district would get its share of the state senator's $20. The act provides any bal- ance remaining after the election expenses have been paid shall be used for county purposes.

For Only Two Parties

One of the first things the pri- mary law does, as a perusal of it will disclose, is to bar, by a neat sequence of phrases, all parties except the two leading ones, Re- publican and Democratic. In de- fining "what is a party" at the very outset the act says:

A political party shall be taken to be an affiliation of electors rep- resenting a political party or or- ganization, which at the last pre- ceding general election polled for its candidates for representatives

Wells Branch

We are getting along very well.

Our schools are progressing nicely with C. S. Queen and Geo. Damron teachers.

On the 3rd day of January, 1916, the Death Angel visited the home of Brother Wm. Marcum on Cotten Hill and took from his home Old Grand Pa Joel Crum, who was born January 1, 1818, age 98 years and 2 days. He had belonged to the Baptist church about 74 years and had been a faithful christian until his death. Let us not weep for God has taken old Bro. Crum to his great re- ward and as he could no longer stay to cheer us with his love, we hope to meet with him again in that bright world above. The time will come sooner or later that we all will have to say good- by to earth and earthly things and receive our reward some where.

As soon as an attack of Rheuma- tism begins apply Sloan's Liniment. Don't waste time and suffer unneces- sary agony. A few drops of Sloan's mind at the outset that water has to be provided in case of drought. Without a regular system of irrigation it may be necessary to haul water to the field in barrels a number of times, but this work will be fully paid for in the extra quality of the celery crop. On account of the possibility of having to haul wa- ter it is best to locate the celery patch close to the well.

Celery is naturally a swamp plant and thrives best in a moist, rather cool soil, but such land is not always avail- able, and the higher and drier soils have to be used. For this crop apply

Knott County Kentucky

A Brief History

Knott County, Kentucky, named for Gov. J. Proctor Knott, was formed in 1884 from parts of Floyd, (1799-1884) Perry, (1821-1884) Letcher, and Breathitt Counties (1839-1884). Though formed late in the 19th century, settlers were in the area now known as Knott in the late 18th century.

McPherson, KY was made the county seat but was renamed Hindman after Lt. Gov. James Hindman. It had been named McPherson by, P. M. Duke when he was named the first postmaster shortly after the end of the Civil War. Before the Civil War, and probably a long time before, Hindman was known as Cornett's Mill as Samuel

Cornett, an early

Knott Settler had a mill located at the forks of Troublesome Creek. Sometimes what later would become Hindman would be referred to as the "Forks of Troublesome."

The 348 square miles known as Knott was formerly parts of these Kentucky counties: Clay (1807-1821), Fleming (1798-1800), Montgomery (1797-1800, Clark (1793-1797), Mason (1797-1798), Bourbon (1786-1789), and Madison Co., KY.

Knott was once a part of these Virginia Counties: Fayette (1780-1772), Washington (1776-1780), Montgomery (1776-1780), Kentucky (1776-1780), Fincastle (1772-1776), Botetourt (1770-1772), Augusta (1734-1770), Spotsylvania (1721-1734), and Native American Territory.

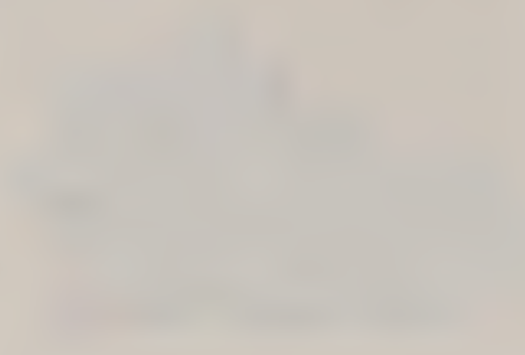

Many of our Knott's early families migrated down the Shenandoah Valley in VA, the east side of the Blue Ridge Mountain to NC and then, after the Rev War was over, migrated to KY, but lived for a while in Russell and Scott County, VA, and other Southeast VA counties on the west side of the Blue Ridge Mountains
